

Alfie

Giuseppe Viganò

The Alfie relaxing armchair stands out for its metal frame, which creates a strong visual impact. The emery-leather body is embellished by cushions which - together with the matching footrest - guarantee the utmost comfort.

The frame is available in painted metal in matt anthracite grey, white, red, chromed or black nickel. The seat exterior is in emery-leather and the interior is complemented by padded cushions upholstered in fabric, eco-leather or leather.
