

Artika

Gino Carollo

The distinguishing feature of this chair, which is clearly evident from the front, is its backrest that constitutes a single whole with the seat and opens out at the top, giving the observer the idea of expansion and breadth. Artika is available with two different bases in painted metal (with four legs or with a sled-shaped base) in multiple finishes, to guarantee the utmost versatility of use and a host of colour combination possibilities.