

GONG

1987 - Gianfranco Frattini

Description

GONG is a family of round tables made entirely from metal, with a great conciseness of forms and lightness in the lines, consisting of two metal discs of different widths, one for the base and the other for the slightly concave top, joined together by a hexagonal stem fastened by means of small metal drums. Available in three different heights and sizes with a brushed metal finish.

Finishings

Available in three different heights and sizes with a brushed metal finish in light Nickel and Titanium grey colors.
