

BONALDO

Phil

Designer: Sergio Bicego

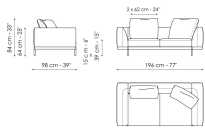

An elegant personality, a frame with a sense of lightness and generous goose down upholstery are the characteristics that make Phil a suitable piece of furniture for any living area. The clean and rigorous lines of this sofa are best emphasized by the detail present in the profile of the cushions, an ornamental border in grosgrain which is available either in contrast or tone on tone for a uniform effect. The sofa is full of details and sartorial elements such as leather armrests, and magazine and tray armrests that complete and personalize the sofa, resulting in an elegant and versatile design. The Phil collection is available in the "Casual" version whose back cushions are reduced in size with spaces between them and the "Linear" version with larger back cushions side by side.
