

Blue Velvet

Fernando and Humberto Campana

General description:

Armchair in the name of softness. Fully upholstered in padded and quilted velvet. The structure is made of ebonycolored wood.

Use:

It's soft like a comforter and enveloping like a hug. It redefines the same idea of conviviality giving absolute comfort and relaxation to the dining room. A perfect complement for small tables as well as for important tables, it is a small armchair that can also be used for the desk or reading, in every room of the house.

Technical description:

Chair with ebony varnished wooden structure. Seat and backrest covered with quilted velvet cushions, removable for washing. Available in all the colors of the cotton velvets in the collection.
